Intercession

- 1 Pray for holiday arrangements: During the holidays, some parents will be traveling with their children. May the Lord protect them and grant them safe journeys, and bless them with meaningful time with their families. This is also the university holiday period—may the Lord guide our young people to use their time wisely, draw close to Him, and benefit physically, mentally, and spiritually during this break.
- 2 Pray for the English ministry: We thank the Lord for leading the English ministry and for the wholehearted commitment of the entire church over the past few years. May the Lord continue to help the English congregation grow and thrive. Pray that those who serve will remain devoted to the Lord and His church, and find increasing joy in their service. Pray also for our committee members—that the Lord will sustain their physical, mental, and spiritual health, enabling each of them to faithfully fulfill their responsibilities and build up the body of Christ.

Spiritual Message

Just Do it

“Just Do It!” Nike has used this slogan since 1988. It was intended to unify its diverse advertising campaigns, offering a direct and universally applicable message that encourages action regardless of athletic ability.

This message resonates with James 1:22: “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.”

We are not only called to be listeners of the Word, but also doers of the Word. James goes on to use an illustration to show that listening without action is ineffective: “Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.”

This illustration is powerful because it reminds us how quickly our memory fades. In order to retain what we have heard, we need to put it into practice. When we have our quiet time and study the Bible, we must apply what we learn. When we listen to a sermon on Sunday, we should not only take notes, but also commit to practicing those truths in the coming week.

James continues in verse 25: “But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.”

We will be blessed as we transition from hearing to doing. As we live out God’s Word, we begin to taste its goodness and experience the true freedom it brings to our lives.
