Intercession

- 1 Prayer for the Situation in the Strait of Hormuz: The Strait of Hormuz, located between Iran and Oman, is a vital maritime route connecting the Persian Gulf to the Arabian Sea. About 20% of the world's oil trade passes through this channel each day, making it one of the most critical energy chokepoints globally. Due to disruptions in shipping and rising security risks, international oil prices have already increased. In light of the potential prolonged closure of the strait and the escalating tensions between Iran and neighboring countries, we pray that the Lord will take sovereign control. May His justice and mercy prevail among all nations.
- 2 Prayer for the New Zealand Government: We pray that the New Zealand government will be granted wisdom and discernment in responding to rising oil prices. May they make prudent decisions to stabilize the economy, support those most affected, and ensure the well-being of the nation during this challenging time.

Spiritual Message

Make Covenant with Our Eyes

“I made a covenant with my eyes…” — Job 31:1a

There is a popular saying, “The eyes are the windows to the soul.” Among all our sensory organs, our eyes enable us to perceive the world around us directly. We use them to see all kinds of objects, scenery, colors, and people. Not only do our eyes see, but what we see is also processed by our brain and stored in our memory.

This idea is closely related to what Jesus teaches in Matthew 6:22–23:

“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!”

Our eyes are not merely for sight—they are truly the windows to our soul. That is why Job said, “I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a young woman” (Job 31:1).

In fact, this statement was part of Job's defense against the accusations of others, and it reflects the way he lived his life. That is why in chapter 1 he is described as a blameless and upright man.

In this season of Lent, may God help us to make a covenant with our eyes—that we may receive what is pure and turn away from what is sinful and lustful.

When we keep our eyes pure, it becomes much easier to resist all kinds of temptation in our lives. Our eyes are the windows of our soul, and our body is the temple of God. May God teach us, draw us close to Him each day, and place holiness and godliness at the very center of our lives. May our lives become a living testimony to the world around us. Amen.
